

Introduction

Within Australia, the Australian Charter of Healthcare Rights \(ACHR\) applies to the entire healthcare system, and it allows patients, consumers, families, carers and healthcare providers to have a common understanding of the rights of people receiving healthcare. The rights included in the ACHR relate to access, safety, respect, communication, participation, privacy and consent.

GWH Dental's Patient Rights Policy

GWH Dental has developed the following charter of patient rights consistent with the Australian Charter of Healthcare Rights.

GWH Dental's Charter of Patient Rights

Appointments

GWH Dental aims to provide patients with appointments to meet their treatment needs. It is requested patients make an agreed appointment time/date to assist the scheduling process, notifying the practice where this appointment cannot be met. To assist you in providing us with this information we contact patients

- Telephone call reminder (all contact phone numbers tried)
- SMS reminder
- Email reminder

As much information as possible regarding the treatment is obtained from the patient when booking an appointment. Notes are made and relayed to clinical staff to help them prepare for the appointment. The information gained also helps the receptionist determine the length of time of an appointment.

The cancellation policy of GWH Dental requires 24 hours' notice for cancellation of an appointment. Should the patient cancel without the required notice period, it is at the Owner's discretion as to whether a cancellation fee is to be charged, and if so, this amount may be $50.00.

In the event we are unable to accommodate a patient's request for an appointment at a specific time/date, consultation with the treating dental practitioner will be sought.

Where a patient fails to arrive at the appointed time, they are phoned after 10 minutes. The appointment is then rescheduled. The owner of GWH Dental may at their discretion charge a fee to cover the lost time, appropriate to treatment scheduled.

The accounts policy of GWH Dental is that payment is required at the time of the appointment. At the discretion of the dentist this may be varied.

Safety

GWH Dental aims to provide appropriate dental services in a safe, secure and supportive environment. We encourage patients and/or staff to raise any concerns they may have. If a concern is raised, all staff and management are required to address the concern as soon as possible. For further information about our commitment to safety refer to GWH Dental's Work, Health & Safety manual.

All patients are required to complete a full medical history as accurately and completely as possible, to allow staff to identify any circumstances that may increase the risks associated with dental care.

In the unlikely occurrence of an adverse event, dental practitioners at GWH Dental have a responsibility to be open and honest in communications with the patient involved, and families or carers if applicable.

It is the responsibility of the registered dental practitioner, in accordance with the Dental Board of Australia's Code of Conduct for Registered Health Practitioners, to explain to the patient what happened and why, as well as offering support and advice with regard to how the situation can best be resolved or managed.

Upon recognising the occurrence of an adverse event, the dental practitioner will follow our Open Disclosure Process, which aligns with the Australian Commission on Safety and Quality in Healthcare's Open Disclosure Standard, as outlined below:

- Act immediately to rectify the problem, if possible, including seeking any necessary help and advice
- Explain to the patient, in sufficient detail, so the patient understands what has occurred, including the anticipated short-term and long-term consequences.
- Acknowledge any patient distress and provide appropriate support
- Develop a future management plan for the patient if required
- Ensure that the patient has access to information about the process for making a complaint
- Report incident to senior management and record in appropriate incident register

Sufficient detail is to be recorded in patient records to reflect the information provided to the patient about the incident, associated risks and likely consequences. The dental practitioner will notify the occurrence of the adverse event to their professional indemnity insurer, consistent with the clauses of their policy.

Respect

GWH Dental values all patients as a unique person and hope that at all times we can provide dental treatment in a manner that is respectful of their culture, beliefs, values and personal characteristics. Patients are asked to reciprocate this respect by being mindful of all staff at GWH Dental and other patients.

This should also include maintaining suitable evidence that patients are fully informed about their proposed treatment and have been a partner in the development of their treatment plan. Such evidence will be monitored through GWH Dental's review processes.

We do expect patients to actively participate in decision and choices about their treatment and dental needs. For extensive treatment plans we also encourage a patient to involve their family or carer in the decision making process.

GWH Dental's Informed Consent Process

The initial examination of a patient shall be considered 'implied consent' to that procedure based on the booking of an appointment, attendance, and the patient allowing the physical examination to occur. Any subsequent treatment shall require the patient to make an informed decision and consent to the treatment either verbally or in writing depending on the procedure and associated risks.

The dental practitioner who is to perform the treatment is responsible for the following informed consent process in line with the Dental Board of Australia's Code of Conduct for Registered Health Practitioners.

Dental practitioners shall take into account additional considerations regarding guardianship arrangements for consent matters when dealing with vulnerable patients.

Sufficient detail is to be recorded in patient records to reflect the information provided to the patient is associated with their treatment options and the treatment plan, which is ultimately agreed upon.

All treatment plans are printed from Practice management software on Dental 4 Windows. It provides a full list of item numbers and tooth number. ### Comment

A patient's evaluation of the care received at our practice is an extremely important form of feedback that provides valuable information about the services we provide. We encourage patients to provide both positive and negative feedback.

All staff will be provided with training and support that will assist them to identify report and appropriately respond to complaints and other negative feedback. At GWH Dental we classify negative feedback into three ways:
